

Simon Kenton Council Camps

Six great camping facilities are available for use by Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops, Sea Scout Ships and Venture Crews. Each camp offers unique opportunities, but strives to maintain a standard of high quality common throughout all camps. For more information or to make a reservation, contact any Simon Kenton Council Service Center or visit us online at www.skcsba.org.

Chief Logan Reservation

Known as “the friendliest camp in the country,” Chief Logan Reservation is located about 20 miles southeast of Chillicothe near Ray, Ohio. The camp encompasses 261 acres of remote, Southern Ohio charm. Sproat Lake emerges from the rolling hills and valleys with large, lush meadows.

Chief Logan has a well-equipped Dining Hall, serving meals that are delicious and nutritious. Troops camp in open campsites with camp-provided wall tents, complete with bunks and mattresses. Campsites also feature latrines, dining flies and picnic tables. Sproat Lake supports numerous swimming and boating activities.

You'll leave Chief Logan knowing that you've made new friends who will be friends forever.

Camp Oyo

Situated in the heart of Shawnee State Forest's 70,000 acres, Camp Oyo is located about 13 miles northeast of Portsmouth, Ohio off of State Route 125. The camp itself is on 55 acres, but there are many opportunities for program expansion onto neighboring lands. Camp Oyo has served thousands of Scouts since opening in 1926.

Camp Oyo offers excellent cabin (yes, even during summer camp) and tent facilities, as well as an enthusiastic staff, great food in our Dining Hall, and plenty of opportunities for Scouts and Scouters to have rip-roarin' good ol' time.

Come out and stay with us this summer; we are confident you will enjoy yourself.

Camp Otter Run

Otter Run Camp is located north of Marysville, Ohio and is designed for primitive camping. This property provides a great opportunity for Scouts to use the patrol method during an overnight or day activity.

Camp Falling Rock

Camp Falling Rock is located 11 miles north of Newark, Ohio off Route 79. More than 600 acres provide a setting of rolling hardwood forests, streams and waterfalls, and scenic meadows. Large rock formations provide a beautiful backdrop to an historic covered bridge that has been photographed by thousands.

Enjoy spacious campsites. Wall tents, are provided complete with bunks and mattresses. Campsites also feature latrines, dining flies and picnic tables. A modern Dining Hall provides three tasty meals daily. The swimming pool is inviting on a warm summer day.

Camp Lazarus

Camp Lazarus is the home of the council's Cub Scout summer resident camps, a wide variety of training programs, and numerous weekend programs throughout the year such as Maple Syrup Festival, Cubervation Earth Day Celebration, Shoot-O-Ree, Springfest, Halloween Haunted Forest, and Tiger Christmas. Camp is located in Delaware County off State Route 23, approximately 9 miles north of Interstate 270 with easy access to Columbus and Delaware.

Camp Lazarus offers several cabins for camping, a dining hall, shooting ranges, activity fields, rustic log cabins, a large amphitheater and accessibility for the physically challenged, a swimming pool, small boating lake and a small fishing pond. The Exchange Lodge is a large, rustic cabin that is perfect for indoor ceremonies, meetings, or group social events.

Facilities available at Camp Lazarus are: dining hall, training center, ranger residence, maintenance sheds, 6 scoutmaster cabins, shower house, 4 program buildings, director's cabin and 5 program shelters.

Historic Camp Lazarus is also part of a preservation easement that will ensure its use for Scouting and protect it from commercial development.

Camp Madison Lake

Located east of London, Ohio and adjacent to Madison Lake State Park, this small property is available for day activities, picnics, and unit camping. The wooded camp offers a pavilion, an Adirondack shelter, as well as the recreational opportunities of the State Park and lake.
