Cub Scout Sign

The two fingers stand for two points of the Promise - Help and obey

Make the sign with your right hand, holding your arm straight up.

SIGNS UP!

Give the sign whenever you repeat the Promise or the law of the Pack

A diagram showing a hand making the Cub Scout sign (two fingers up). The hand is shown in two ways: one as a simple line drawing and one as a colored illustration of a boy's hand. A yellow box labeled 'SIGNS UP!' contains the colored illustration. Lines connect the text to the two fingers and the hand.
