

Team Tiger Requirements

Complete Requirement 1 and 2 plus at least 2 others

- 1. With your parent, guardian, other caring adult, or den, talk about what it means to be part of a team. List some of the teams you are on (den, pack, family, class, etc.). and explain how you can help each one.
- 2. With your den, talk about your Tiger team. Then make a chart showing all the different ways team members can help the den. Volunteer to take your turn doing at least two different jobs, one of which is leading the Pledge of Allegiance.
- 3. With your family, talk about how family members each have a role in the family team. Then pick a job that you will do to help the team. Follow through by doing that job at least three times during the next three weeks.
- 4. With your den or family, participate as a team in a service project that helps our country or your community.
- 5. With your den, make a chart or picture showing how you and your teammates make a better team because you are alike in some ways but different in others.

Ideas for Adventure Requirements:

- 1. The discussion could start like this: "How many people are needed for a team?" Think about different sports and how many people are playing at any time baseball, basketball, volleyball, football, soccer, hockey, ultimate frisbee, lacrosse, quidditch, tennis, badminton, ping pong.
- 2. Use a Tiger Den Job Chart

3. Make a chore chart for your tiger!: https://tinyurl.com/DIY-Chore-Chart-video

- 4. One possible project could be to collect aluminum pop can tabs and donate them to the Ronald McDonald House in your area. Most have a collection program in place. http://rmhc-centralohio.org/volunteer/pop-tabs/
- 5. Emphasize that everyone has unique skills, characteristics, and abilities that develop and change over time. Physical appearance differences will probably be listed quickly. Encourage your scout to use their imagination and think of things you can't see favorite school subject, unique skill or hobby
