

Leave No Trace Trainer Course Camp Lazarus, Delaware, OH March 31-April 2, 2023

Who: Scouts BSA over 14 years of age, Venturers, Adults and/or Youth, Venturing Advisors, Associate Venturing Advisors, Unit Commissioners and other adult leaders.

What: 16-hour Leave No Trace Trainer course provides instruction on how to teach the Principles of Leave No Trace and to help inspire others to minimize impacts while recreating outdoors. All course materials will be provided. This is a training course for individuals who want to become Outdoor Ethics Trainers

Why - Learn the basics of Leave No Trace and Outdoor Ethics and the methods of teaching the Awareness Course to Troops, Packs (age appropriate materials), or Crews. The hands-on exercises will help you understand the 7 Principles and how they apply to your hiking, backpacking and camping plans year-round, and how limit our outdoor impacts.

Register online today!

Course Cost: $55.00 (Includes meals, program materials and camping fees)

Program materials include a Leave No Trace book, hangtags and teaching resources. All participants are expected to give a 10 - 15 minute presentation on an assigned topic of Leave No Trace. Participants will be using activities from the 101 Ways to Teach Leave No Trace and Bigfoot's Playbook.

Dress is casual, BSA activity uniform encouraged. Please dress weather appropriate.

Bring a tent, sleeping bags, and eating utensils. We will cook on camp and backpacking stoves. Drinking water is available on the property. Meal preparation is part of the course.

Leave No Trace is integrated into every Scouting Program, every Pack, Troop, Team, Crew, and Ship should have a LNT Trainer. The course is highly recommended for members of the Districts' outdoor skills training teams who teach IOLS, BALOO, WOW, and Leader Specific Training. Scouts holding the Outdoor Ethics Guide position of responsibility learn the skills they need to be successful in their job through participating in this course.

Course size is limited to 14 participants. Register soon!
